

News

< All< PreviousNext >

Prof. Vladia Borisova, Dr., is the new President of The Patent Office of the Republic of Bulgaria

Prof. Vladia Borisova, Dr, President of the Patent Office of the Republic of Bulgaria

On June 16, 2021 Prof. Vladia Borisova, Dr., was appointed President of the Patent Office of the Republic of Bulgaria.

Prof. Vladia Borisova, Dr., is a Master of Law and Economics, with many years of experience in the field of intellectual property.

She is the Director of the Institute of Intellectual Property and Technology Transfer (IPTT) at the UNWE, which professionally trains personnel in the field of intellectual property. She is an economist and intellectual property lawyer at the Sofia Bar Association (SBA). Specializes in intellectual property at Queen Mary Intellectual Property Research Institute of London and Université de Lille - I France. Industrial property representative. Expert to the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and Vice President to the working bodies of the organization. Consultant of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), Commercial Crime Service, Intellectual Property Crime Division, London.

Since 2017 she has been a member of the Academic Council to the President of the Patent Office of the Republic of Bulgaria. Member of the National Association of Intellectual Property, Biology and Pharmacy. Independent expert at the Bulgarian Small and Medium Enterprise Promotion Agency (BSMEPA). Expert to the 39th, 40th and 43rd National Assembly of the Republic of Bulgaria. She has many years of expert, teaching and research experience with numerous national and international contributions, expertise, initiatives, strategic projects and publications in the field of intellectual property and technology transfer for business purposes.

< All< PreviousNext >