Article 2

Article 63(1) of the Service Regulations shall be amended to read as follows:

"(1) Except in case of incapacity to work due to sickness or accident, a permanent employee may not be absent without prior permission from his immediate superior. Any unauthorised absence which is duly established shall lead to a deduction of the remuneration of the permanent employee concerned pursuant to Article 65(1)(d)."

Article 3

Article 65(1) of the Service Regulations shall be amended to read as follows:

"(1)(a) Payment of remuneration to employees shall be made at the end of each month for which it is due.

(b) Where remuneration is not payable in respect of a complete month, the monthly amount shall be divided into thirtieths and

- where the actual number of days for which pay is due is fifteen or less, the number of thirtieths payable shall equal the actual number of days for which pay is due;

- where the actual number of days for which pay is due is more than fifteen, the number of thirtieths payable shall equal the difference between the actual number of days for which pay is not due and thirty.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of (b), where remuneration is not payable in respect of a complete month owing to participation in a strike, the monthly amount shall be divided into twentieths to establish the due deduction for each day of strike on a working day.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of (b), where remuneration is not payable in respect of a complete month owing to unauthorised absence, the monthly amount shall be divided into twentieths to establish the due deduction for each day of unauthorised absence on a working day.

If an allowance is requested after expiry of the above six-month period, it shall be granted retroactively but only for the six months preceding the month in which the request was submitted, except in a duly substantiated case of force majeure. On cessation of such entitlement the employee shall receive the sum due up to the last day of the month in which entitlement ceases.

(f) All permanent employees in receipt of an allowance shall inform the President of the Office immediately in writing of any change which may affect their entitlement to that allowance."
