Information regarding the appointment of the new Director of SOIP

Today, the current Deputy Director Goran Gerasimovski officially takes over the function of acting Director of the State Office of Industrial Property.

"Ready for new challenges, we continue to work transparently and tirelessly. By protecting intellectual property, we are moving the Macedonian economy forward, encouraging innovation and creating conditions for young people to realize their talents at home." said Gerasimovski.

All employees of the State Office of Industrial Property expressed their gratitude to Dr. Safet Emruli, who headed this institution in previous years. The Office continues with the current and additional activities, in accordance with the priorities of the new management. The aim is to emphasize the importance of the protection of intellectual rights and the great contribution that innovation has to the development of the economy and the state.
