

The ex-CEO used the state credit card for his own spending

In the police's preliminary investigation material, the numerous cash withdrawals of the former Director General of the NBPR with state credit and payment time cards are linked with the proximity of the Helsinki Grand Casino.

The use of cards by Martti Enäjärvi is discussed in the courts. JYRKI VESA

Nina Leinonen
nina.leinonen@ilmedia.fi
11/17/2011 at 6:00 AM

According to the prosecutor, Martti Enäjärvi, the former director general of the National Board of Patents and Registration (NBPR), has used state credit and payment time cards for his own private expenses.

The matter has been heard in the Helsinki District Court in October and a court decision is expected in December.

Enäjärvi has often withdrawn cash from the Kaisaniemenkatu and Mikonkatu vending machines in the immediate vicinity of the Casino several times during the same day.

Read more about the CEO's strange cash withdrawals on Thursday, November 17th. From the evening newspaper.